

Creating Recovery-Ready Campuses Together

Mental health and substance use recovery go hand in hand—and college students deserve support for both. Iowa's Collegiate Recovery Network is a space to advance substance use recovery support among college students, connect with others who care, share what's working, and build recovery-ready campuses together. Whether you're in recovery, an ally, or just curious, there's a place for you here.

Why join?

Chat with people like you - who want to help college kids find recovery

Strengthen your campus and community's recovery effort

Swap ideas and success stories

Find resources and friends close by!

Hop on Zoom with us - we've got something good coming up!

December 2nd, 2025 at 11:00 AM (CST)

We're excited to welcome Bret Frazier, Technical Assistance Coordinator at ARHE, as our guest speaker this December! Bret works closely with collegiate recovery programs across the country, supporting their growth and helping them thrive for the long term.

Stay tuned for more details on upcoming sessions in February, April, June and August 2026!

Learn more about Iowa's Collegiate Recovery Network

This project is supported by State Opioid Response funds through the Iowa Department of Health and Human Services, Bureau of Substance Use (IowaHHS) via a subaward from the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). The contents are those of the author(s) and do not necessarily represent the official views of, nor an endorsement by, IowaHHS, SAMHSA/HHS, or the U.S. Government.